

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING POLICY

Pulse Printing Products is committed to prevent slavery and human trafficking in our business activities. We all have a duty to be alert to risks, however small. Employees are expected to report their concerns and management to act upon them.

Pulse Printing Products is member of SEDEX, who is dedicated to driving improvements in responsible and ethical business practices in the global supply chains.

Pulse Printing Products is also an active member of UN Global Compact which fourth principle of 10 principles says, that businesses should eliminate all forms of forced and compulsory labour.

Pulse Printing Products does not permit, condone or accept of any form of human trafficking and slavery as defined in the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
